

savoy corpse reviver

gnawing on
the piece of lip
rendered off
from the repeated
scraping against
serrated edges
wrist to wrist
clasped behind
elbows creating
a perfect circle
sputtering noises
wheeze of inhale
the red face of
forgetting to
listen mistakes
apologies given
through tears
a gift of parting
wet salt
irretrievable except for the relaxation of
the soft palate
and
nasal breathing
and trust.

chewing with
the fragment of flesh
seared slab
the constant rhythm
grating on
wet cement
texture leaving skin
full disclosure
hair bound an
oblong circle
melting iron
dipping the slightest
tepid intrepid toe to
test acidity
slightly tingling
via nerves
battered with
luxe velvet curtains a
present beyond
gentle pushes and
stark breathable air
and sitting on
sternums
back scratched
bright cold.

blanc de noirs

she bruised in
constellations
delicate edges
blended across the
dough of her
thighs parted
behind the quarry
cordial pinpricks
heated pressured
on a
carpeted stairway

gagging with effort
formica
broaches and
minute zippered pouches kneading and needing protruding venous
colored subcutaneous fats
overwhelming dazzle
against atmospheric
pressure and
potential diversity

sundowner

imaginable
and underdeveloped
smacks that warmed
and displaced the
ladyfinger
in the singular
a juxtaposition
of cold earl grey
and garden hoses

spinning
suicidal perforations
scissor scar on
throats and lighter
ideas
lifted from sizzling
wrought iron
scrapped with feather decency
looking for bones
